

Mediator & Barrister – Joe Al – Khayat

Joe is a barrister at 30 Park Place, Cardiff, who has worked on a wide range of commercial, contract, employment, personal injury and insolvency-related disputes.

His experience in acting for parties involved in litigation has reinforced Joe's belief in the value of achieving settlement prior to trial, and bolstered his belief in the process of mediation.

Joe was called to the Bar in 2008 by the Honourable Society of the Inner Temple, having achieved a grade of Outstanding in both Advocacy and Alternative Dispute Resolution. After successfully completing pupillage at 30 Park Place in the areas of Crime and Civil, Joe began tenancy in September 2010, accepting instructions in particular in company, commercial, contract, employment, insolvency and personal injury law. Joe qualified as an accredited Mediator in September 2008. Prior to joining 30 Park Place, Joe worked as a litigator in two top commercial law firms in Cardiff where he advised and represented clients in commercial litigation and employment matters.
